

This is a Virtual Training

With the current health pandemic, MFN's Training of Trainers/Responsive Training Symposium will be conducted virtually. What is normally three full day modules has been reformatted to six half-day sessions, requiring assigned work to be completed and submitted before each of the half-day sessions.

Additional Information

The Responsive Training Symposium is sponsored by Maryland Family Network and approved by the Maryland State Department of Education.

Certificates acknowledging completion of the Responsive Training Symposium will be awarded and mailed to participants after each module. Participation is limited; no walk-in registrations will be accepted. Registration fees are non-refundable. Confirmation letters will be mailed to participants. Make check or money orders payable to Maryland Family Network; include title of training on check and mail with your registration form to:
